What is this about?

Your school needs some information about you so that they can teach you, keep you safe, and help you learn.

What information do we collect?

- Your name, address, and contact details.
- Things like your age, language, and whether you get free school meals.
- Health information (such as allergies or any medicines you need).
- How often you come to school and your grades.
- Whether you need extra help with learning.
- Sometimes, your photo or fingerprint (for things like lunch or the library).

Why do we need this?

- To help you learn.
- To keep you safe and healthy.
- To check how well you're doing in school.
- To follow the law.

Who do we share it with?

- Other schools, if you move.
- Doctors or nurses, if you need help.
- The council and the government (they use it to plan schools and exams).
- People who help with exams or school systems.

Your rights:

- You can ask what information we have about you.
- You can ask us to fix it if it's wrong.
- You can ask us to delete it if we don't need it anymore.
- If you're worried, you can talk to your school or email:
